Terms and conditions:

It normally takes up to 14 days from receipt of your payment for your course manual/s and tapes to be sent to you. If UK students pay in two halves, fees for part 2 of your course will remain the same as your initial payment if you complete the course within 1 year. If you send in your second payment after that time you will be charged at the current rate. Please note that refunds are made entirely at the discretion of the school. A charge will be made for administration and postage for returned material. Please let us know within ten days of receipt of coursework if there is any part missing. Should you decide to change to another course you will be asked to pay any difference in the fees and extra cost of postage and packing for your new course.

Coursework must be submitted within one year of enrolment or there will be an extra charge for tutoring fees.
